Organising an eco-friendly wedding is not only a fashionable choice, but represents a concrete commitment to respecting the environment. In recent years, more and more couples are realising the environmental impact that an event such as a wedding can have, and are turning towards solutions that minimise the waste of natural resources, pollution and waste produced. A sustainable wedding allows you to celebrate love in a responsible way, showing care for the planet and inspiring your guests to do the same.

An eco-friendly wedding is not only environmentally friendly, but can also be an extremely original and personal event. These celebrations often result in intimate and authentic weddings, where every detail is thought through with love and attention, resulting in a memorable experience for both the bride and groom and their guests. Opting for a green wedding is a way of expressing your love for nature and your desire to build a greener, more conscious future together.

WHY CHOOSE AN ECO-FRIENDLY WEDDING?

Choosing an eco-sustainable wedding means making a declaration of love not only towards your partner, but also towards the planet. Couples who opt for this choice demonstrate sensitivity towards the environment and the desire to celebrate their special day in a conscious and respectful way towards nature, minimizing the environmental impact.

A green wedding represents a commitment to the future: it is a way to build a life together based on shared values, underlining the importance of taking care of the planet not only for themselves, but also for future generations. At the same time, this choice allows you to create an authentic and unique event, in which every detail is designed to reflect the personality and values of the couple. Locations immersed in nature, decorations made by hand or with recycled materials and the use of seasonal flowers give the wedding an intimate and personal atmosphere, transforming it into an unforgettable experience.

Contrary to what you might think, an eco-sustainable wedding can also be cheaper. By choosing local products, reusable materials and DIY decorations, you can significantly reduce overall costs, avoiding food and material waste.
In addition, sustainable choices offer a unique opportunity to engage guests in a positive message. Eco-friendly favors, such as plants or seeds, or digital invitations instead of paper, are small gestures that can inspire friends and family to reflect on their habits.

A wedding organized in a sustainable way not only celebrates love in a conscious way, but also leaves a positive footprint. Every choice, from the zero-mile menu to the dress in ecological fabrics, contributes to creating a harmonious event that reflects the values of the spouses, demonstrating that it is possible to experience extraordinary moments while respecting the world around us.

IN THIS ISSUE WE PRESENT SUPPLIERS WHO HAVE EMBRACED OUR CONCEPT.

In a world where every choice can make a difference, The Bridal Mood is proud to present you the niche suppliers selected for you, professionals who share our vision of an authentic, sustainable and meaningful wedding. These unique talents work with eco-friendly materials, transforming every detail into a work of art and offering much more than a simple service: creating unforgettable experiences.

From wedding dresses made with organic or recycled fabrics, to handcrafted decorations made with seasonal flowers and natural materials, the suppliers you will find on these pages stand out for their creativity, passion and a strong commitment to sustainability. Each collaboration with them becomes an exciting journey, where you can discover new ideas, share visions and build together a wedding that not only celebrates love, but also leaves a positive mark on the planet.

Choosing conscious suppliers is much more than a simple logistical decision: it is an experience that enriches every moment of your big day. Sustainable favors, digital invitations that reduce environmental impact and zero-mile catering are just some of the examples of how our selected suppliers make your event unique and responsible.

With The Bridal Mood we want to inspire you to live your wedding as an experience that combines beauty and awareness. We invite you to discover the niche suppliers that we have carefully selected for you, in perfect harmony with our philosophy and your dreams.

SIMONE is the founder of SIMONE RIGAMONTI VIDEO

Recounting the reality that surrounds me is more than a passion: it is an essential part of who I am. Every moment I live is unique, unrepeatable, a fragment of time that deserves to be captured and treasured.

With my eyes I explore the beauty of the world, observing the details that often escape, and with my art I document not just images, but stories. Each shot is a mosaic of emotions, atmospheres and memories that remain imprinted in time, carrying with it the essence of what it was.

Emotions, the real ones, cannot be explained with words. They are lived, felt on the skin, breathed in moments. Sharing them through a video or a photograph is a choice that belongs to you. I simply create a bridge between the moment and the memory, turning each experience into a visual narrative that speaks without the need for words.

My mission is simple: to preserve the history of the world and of people, one fragment at a time, through my gaze.

REAL DESTINATION WEDDING in

ITALY

Destination wedding in Tuscany

Welcome in

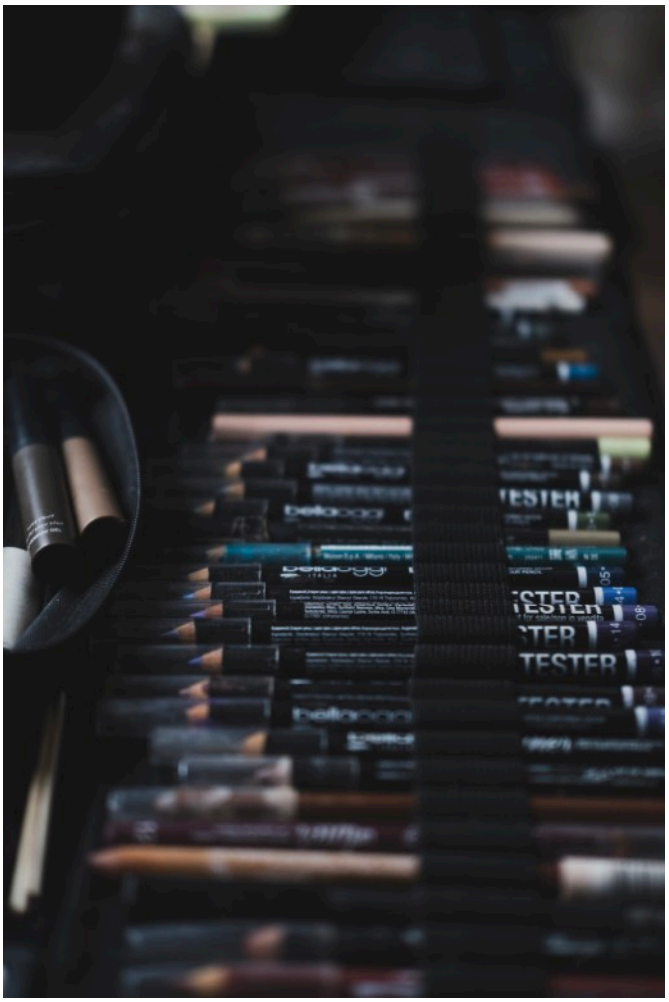

Villa la Palagina Tuscany.

Villa Palagina, a Renaissance jewel nestled in the heart of Chianti, was the perfect setting for Kathryn and Oliver's union. The couple, originally from foggy London, had always nurtured an intimate passion for Italy, and Tuscany in particular. And so, amidst the rolling hills and vineyards on the horizon, they decided to celebrate their love.

Built in the 18th century as the residence of a noble Florentine family, the villa was created to celebrate the majesty of the landscape and the art of conviviality. Surrounded by centuries-old olive groves and vineyards that produce some of the region's best wines, Villa Palagina is strategically located: just a stone's throw from art cities such as Florence, Siena and San Gimignano, but far from the hustle and bustle of modern life.

The legend behind the name!

The name 'Palagina' is linked to an old local legend. It is said that the villa was built on a spot where fairies used to gather in the moonlight to dance. The word 'Palagina' is said to derive from an archaic term meaning 'dwelling of the fairies', a name that seems to evoke the magic and enchantment that can be felt in every corner of the property

Villa Palagina is today one of the most sought-after locations for destination weddings thanks to its unique combination of history, elegance and nature. Here are the main reasons why couples from all over the world choose this villa for their special day:

La Palagina
RISTORANTE

After

their emotional ceremony at Villa Palagina, Kathryn and Oliver decided to take a special moment for the two of them, away from the hustle and bustle of the party. We moved to the gardens of the villa, where the sunset light enveloped the landscape in a warm and romantic atmosphere.

The gardens, with their cypress-lined paths and breathtaking views of the Tuscan hills, were the perfect setting for editorial photos to tell their love story with elegance and poetry.

The use of FLASH

Despite the absence of natural sunlight, the cloudy sky added a unique beauty to the setting, emphasising the colours of nature and the architectural details of the villa.

To enhance this atmosphere, I used flash to create dramatic and defined lighting, which gave depth and character to each shot.

The tower of champagne glasses is a scenic detail that adds a touch of elegance and magic to a wedding. In addition to its aesthetic appeal, it symbolically represents the union and sharing between the bride, groom and guests. The moment when the champagne slides down from the top, filling each glass, recalls the flow of love and joy spread throughout the day

After surprising everyone with a spectacular tower of champagne glasses, Kathryn and Oliver toasted to their love under a sky of applause and smiles. The elegant and magical moment was the perfect prelude to their first dance as husband and wife.

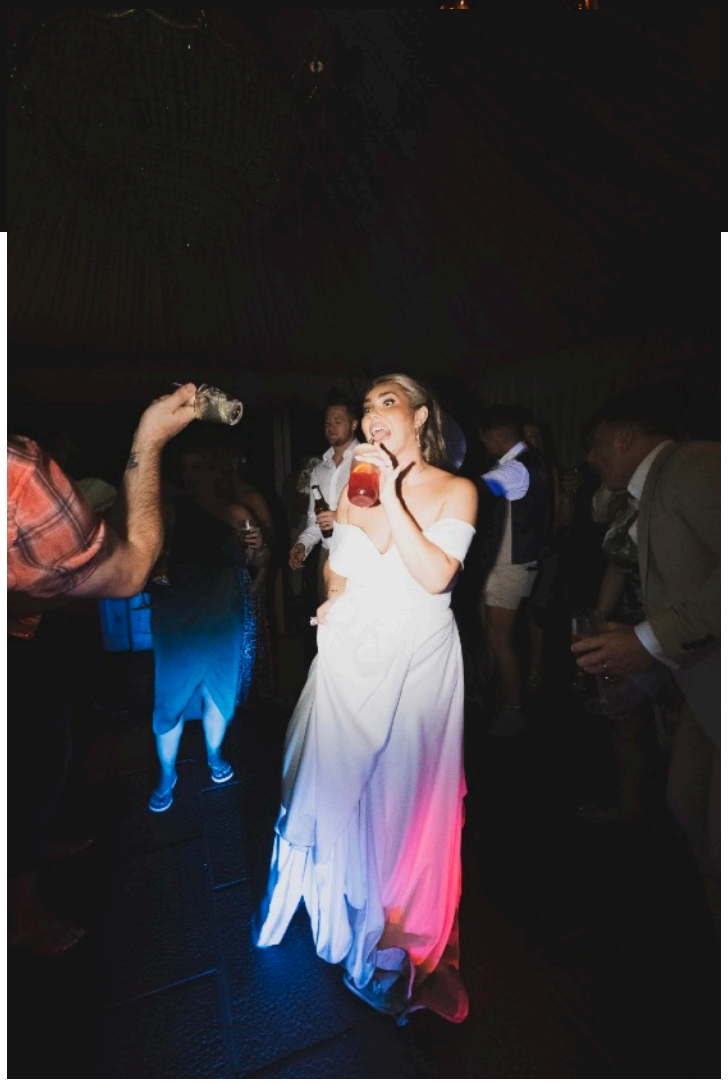

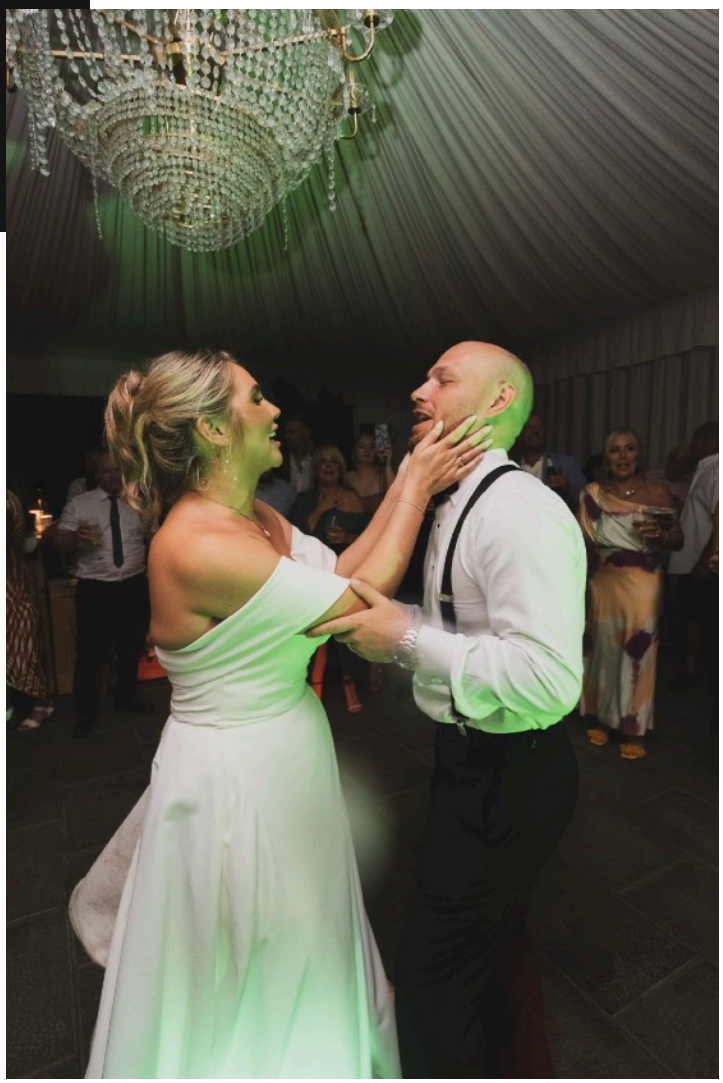

SAX

Calling in a saxophonist for your wedding is party a choice that can turn the event into an unforgettable experience. The sound of the saxophone is enveloping, romantic and full of emotion, perfect for creating a sophisticated atmosphere during special moments such as the first dance, the cutting of the cake or the welcome cocktail.

Jewellery: The wedding ring

When choosing wedding rings, there are a few aspects to consider. Traditionally made of yellow gold, today they can be found in a variety of materials, such as white gold, rose gold, platinum or combinations of different metals. The choice of material depends on personal taste and budget. In addition to the material, one can choose between different designs, from the classic plain wedding ring to more original and customised models.

Discover Golden Alchemy Oil, a fine blend of carefully selected organic botanical oils, including [list at least 3-4 main oils with their specific benefits, e.g. jojoba oil (sebum-regulating), argan oil (antioxidant and nourishing), rosehip oil (healing and regenerating), camellia oil (elasticising)]. This versatile formula adapts to different skin needs and age groups, offering benefits for both young skin with acne tendency and mature skin looking for an effective anti-ageing treatment.

Thanks to the synergy of its natural ingredients, Golden Alchemy Oil fits perfectly into your daily beauty routine. The presence of vitamin C, a powerful antioxidant, helps even out the complexion, diminishing blemishes and improving skin texture for a more radiant and youthful appearance. The antioxidants in the blend help protect the skin from free radical damage, purify pores and maintain a healthy, vital appearance. The non-comedogenic formula makes the oil suitable for even the most delicate and acne-prone skin without clogging pores.

Live a unique experience.

After the 'yes' day, when the echo of emotions is still vibrating, treat yourself to a unique experience: a photo shoot on the beach. Not a simple photo session, but an intimate moment to celebrate your bond in a natural setting of rare beauty.

The secret to perfect images

Make-up
is much more than an aesthetic detail:

it is the art that transforms and enhances, an essential ally in achieving flawless photographs. Photography, in fact, captures every nuance, emphasising not only features, but also small imperfections that often escape the human eye. A well-crafted make-up not only serves to correct, but to enhance the natural light of the face, ensuring a harmonious and balanced result.

In photography, the right combination of colours, textures and techniques can make the difference between an ordinary image and a memorable shot. Professional make-up not only takes into account the lighting, but also the mood you want to convey: from the freshness of a natural look to the intensity of a glamorous style.

Whether for a wedding shoot, a portrait or an advertising campaign, make-up becomes an integral part of the visual narrative. It is what allows the subject to feel comfortable, confident and enhanced, reflecting their personality to the fullest through the photographer's lens.

Never underestimate the power of makeup: in photographs, it is the detail that makes each shot extraordinary, is an extraordinary location for a photo shoot, thanks to its natural beauty and unique atmosphere. This beach offers a long stretch of golden sand, crystal-clear waters and gentle dunes, perfect for creating a versatile and evocative backdrop. The eastern location guarantees extraordinary light at sunrise and sunset, with warm, soft colours giving the shots a magical, romantic atmosphere.

What makes Belongil Beach even more special are its distinctive features, such as the sea-smoothed logs, scattered rocks and natural pools, which add depth and personality to every photograph. Compared to other beaches in Byron Bay, it is more secluded and quiet, offering a serene and intimate environment that allows one to work without distractions and helps subjects feel comfortable in front of the lens.

Planning as the Key to Photographic Success!

Planning a photoshoot in advance is essential for maximizing results and managing resources effectively. It's not just about taking pictures; it's about careful preparation to ensure a successful outcome and a positive experience. Advance planning is key.

This includes developing a creative concept (style, setting, wardrobe, atmosphere), choosing the right location (lighting, space, permits), and creating a detailed schedule (duration, breaks, poses). For shoots with a team (makeup artists, stylists, assistants), advance coordination is crucial.

Pre-planning a photoshoot is an investment in success—ensuring quality photos, efficient use of time and resources, and a smooth, rewarding experience.

Suspended between Heaven and Earth

Flying in a hot-air balloon is a magical experience, providing spectacular views from a unique perspective, suspended between heaven and earth. To make this adventure unforgettable, it is important to plan every detail carefully.

The choice of destination is the first step: Among the most impressive destinations are Cappadocia in Turkey, famous for its valleys and rock formations; Tuscany, Italy, with its rolling hills and vineyards; the Serengeti, Tanzania, which offers breathtaking views of wildlife; Albuquerque, in the United States, known for hosting the Balloon Fiesta, the world's largest gathering of hot air balloons; and Australia, which offers some of the most spectacular views, such as those of the Blue Mountains or the desert expanses of the Red Centre, where the contrast between the natural landscapes and the vast sky is truly extraordinary.

The importance of arrangements and details in one's destination wedding is even greater than in a traditional wedding. In a context in which one chooses to celebrate the union in a special place, often far from home, the arrangements and details become true narrators of the couple's story and connection to the chosen destination. These are not just decorations, but elements that contribute to creating an immersive and unforgettable experience for the bride and groom and their guests. The arrangements, from the choice of location to floral design, from lighting to mise en place, define the atmosphere of the event and reflect the style and personality of the bride and groom. The details, such as place cards, menus, and favours add a personal and curated touch, creating a coherent and

Verona

The city of love offers an unrivalled setting to immortalise your most special moments. From Juliet's famous balconies, an eternal symbol of passion, to the medieval alleys that tell millenary stories, every corner of Verona is a canvas ready to be painted with the most authentic emotions.

Verona is not only a place rich in history and romance, but also a versatile city, capable of offering different scenarios for every need. From the Arena, an architectural colossus, to the gardens of Castelvecchio, an oasis of peace, you will find the perfect backdrop for every style and occasion.

La Dolce Vita is more than just a saying. It is a lifestyle, an atmosphere, an era that has left an indelible mark on Italian and international culture.

Concept.

Do you have an Idea or Concept in Mind? We help you develop it

Every great event is born from an idea, an image or an emotion that you want to turn into reality. If you already have a concept in mind for your wedding, we are here to help you bring it to life, guiding you step by step through the creative and organisational process.

Your vision will be our starting point: we will listen to your wishes, dreams and expectations and translate them into a concrete project, with attention to every detail. Whether it is a romantic and natural setting, a vintage theme or a modern and minimalist design, our goal is to realise something that fully reflects your personality and style.

Take inspiration from our work

Imagine saying your fateful ‘yes’ surrounded by the beauty of nature, in a magical and intimate atmosphere. A greenhouse, with its soft light filtering through the leaves and its vibrant colours, offers a dream setting for the most beautiful day of your life.

A greenhouse is more than just a location: it is an oasis of peace and serenity, a place where nature and elegance come together in perfect harmony. You can customise every detail, creating an atmosphere that reflects your personality and your love. Whether you dream of a boho-chic, rustic or elegant wedding, a conservatory fits any style.

One of the biggest advantages of choosing a conservatory is flexibility. You no longer have to worry about the weather: rain or shine, your ceremony will always be perfect. In addition, the natural light filtering through the windows will create a romantic and evocative atmosphere, enhancing every moment of your special day.

Choosing a conservatory also means making an eco-friendly choice. A wedding in this setting is a way of celebrating love for nature and our planet.

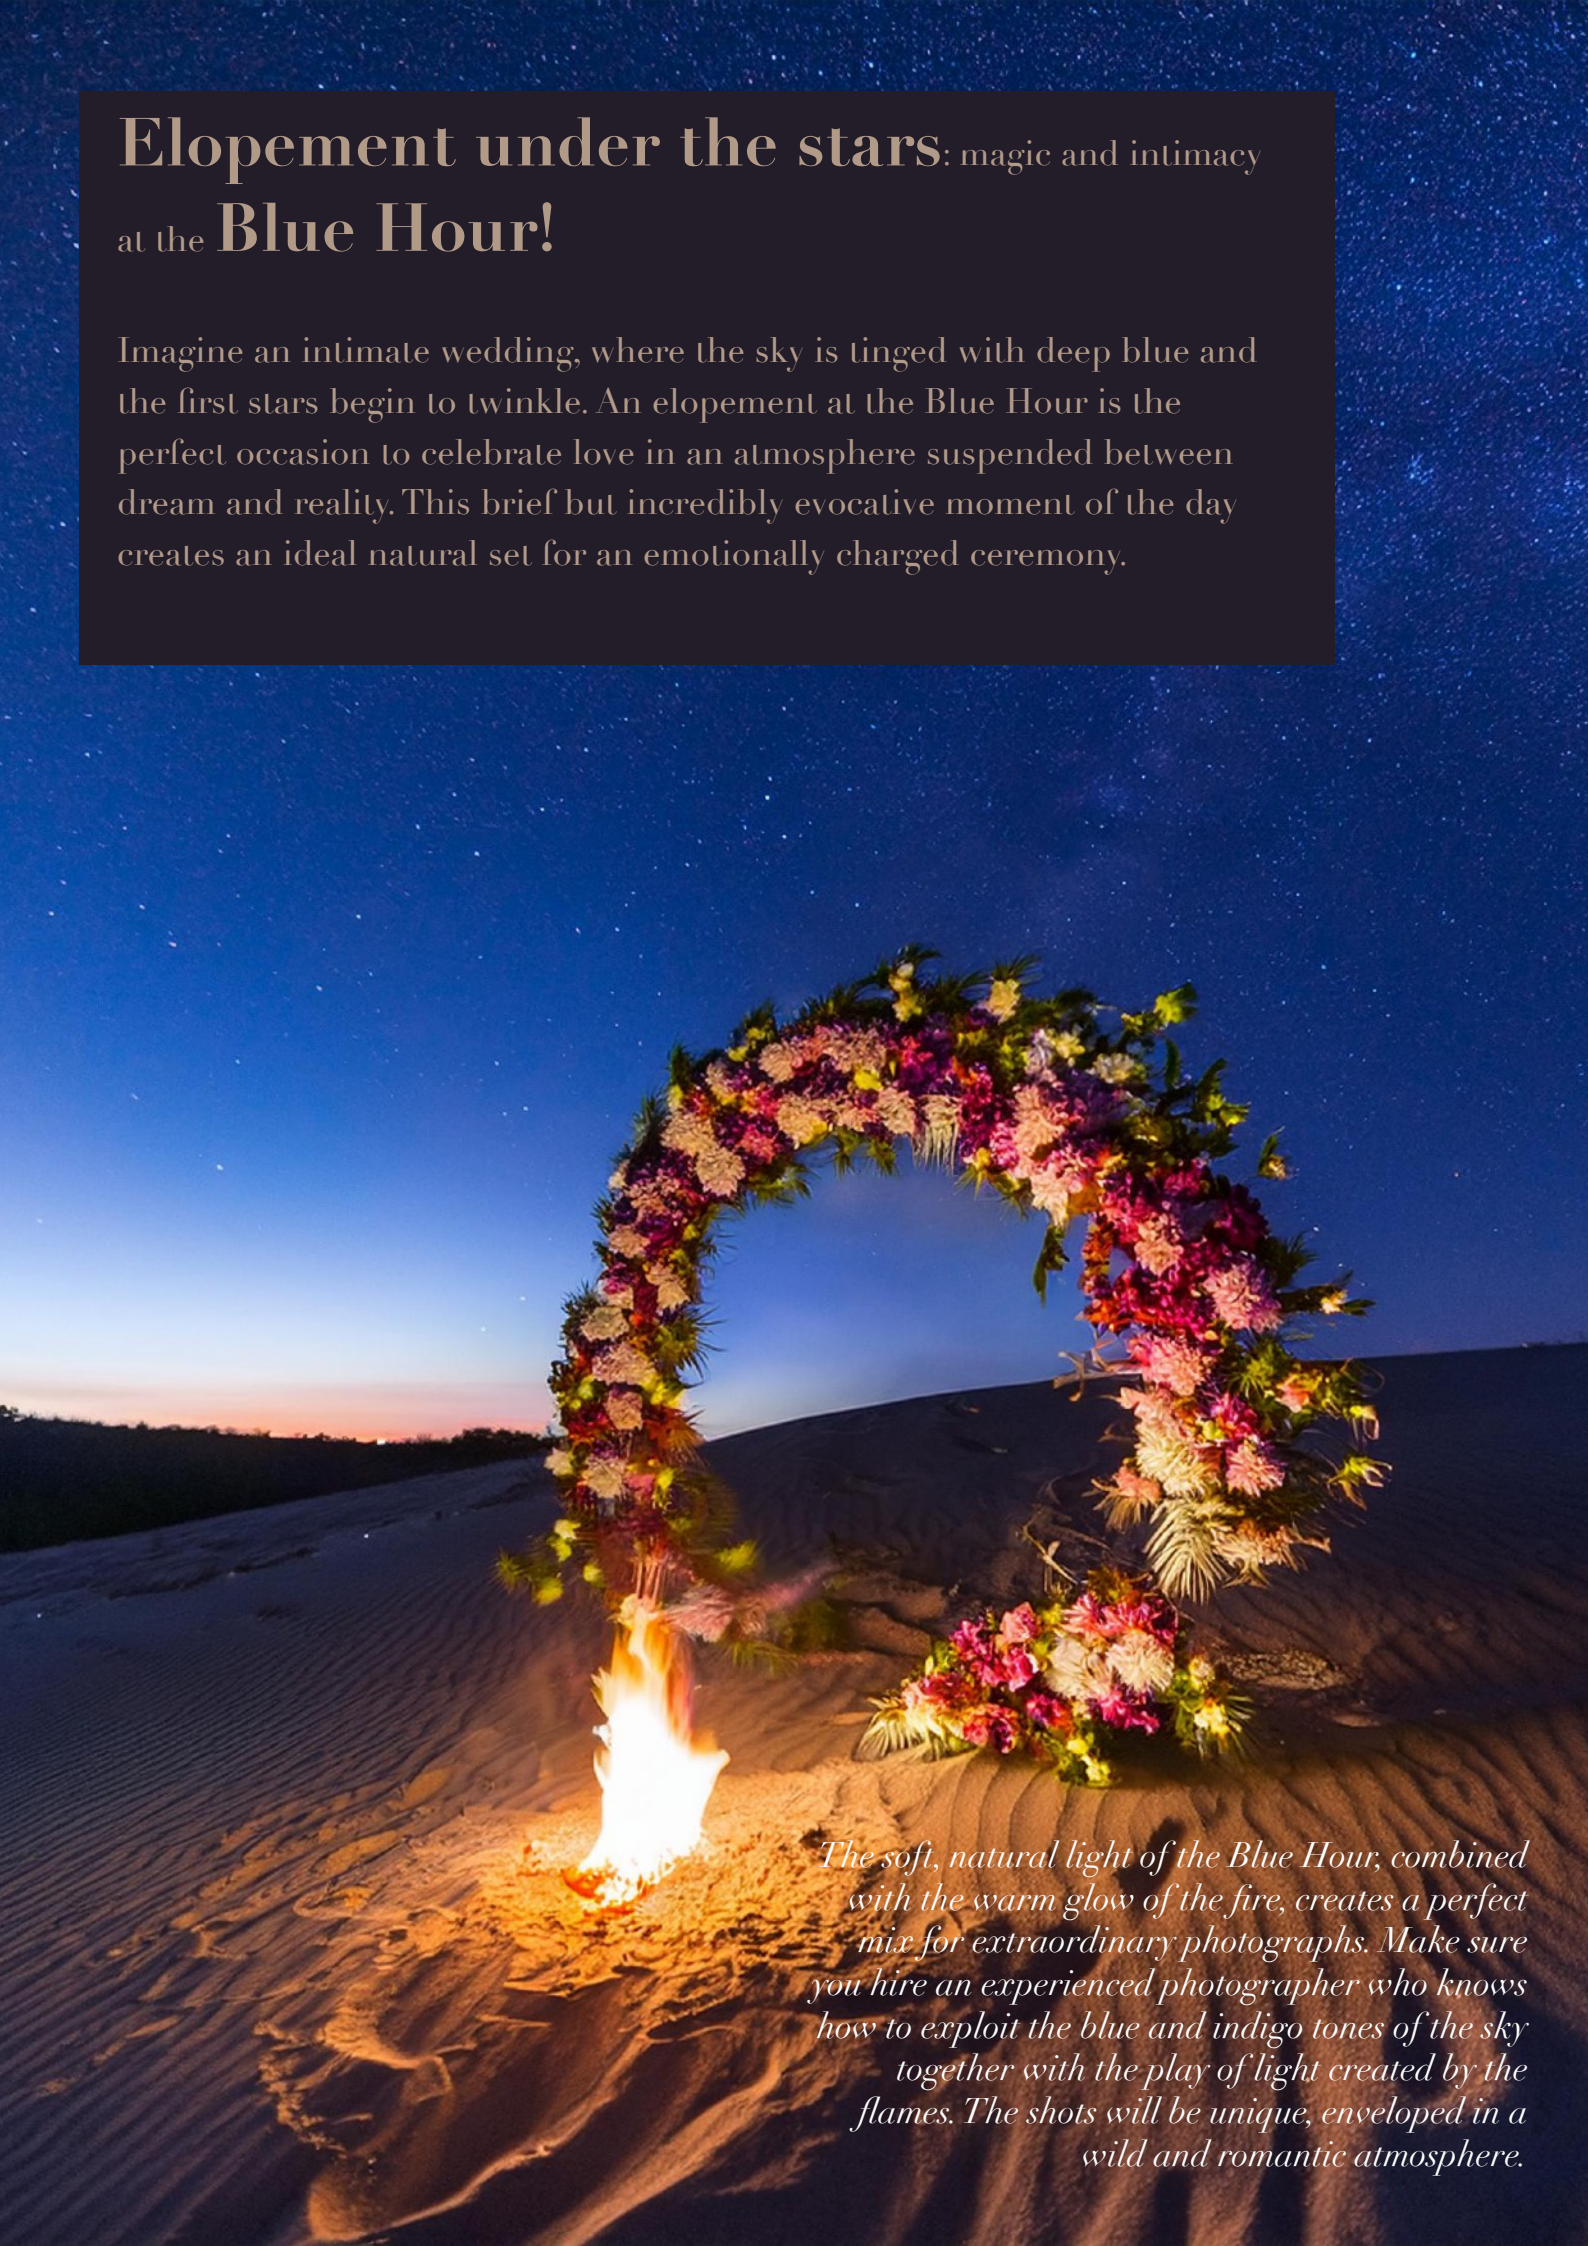

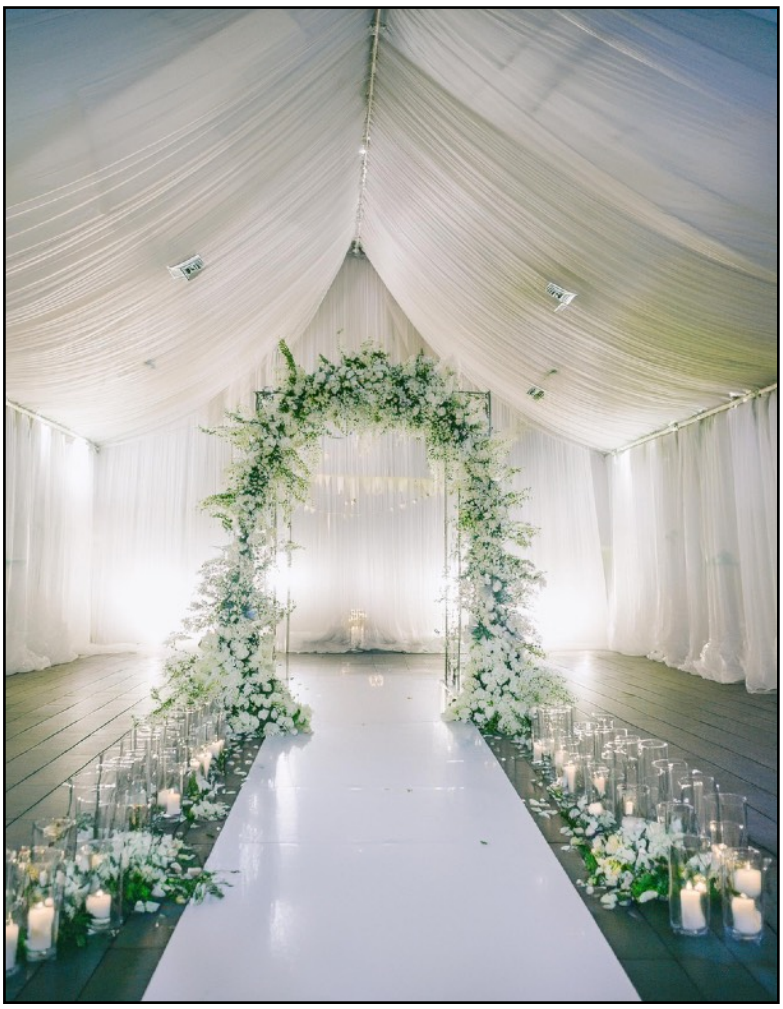

Elopement under the stars: magic and intimacy at the Blue Hour!

Imagine an intimate wedding, where the sky is tinged with deep blue and the first stars begin to twinkle. An elopement at the Blue Hour is the perfect occasion to celebrate love in an atmosphere suspended between dream and reality. This brief but incredibly evocative moment of the day creates an ideal natural set for an emotionally charged ceremony.

The soft, natural light of the Blue Hour, combined with the warm glow of the fire, creates a perfect mix for extraordinary photographs. Make sure you hire an experienced photographer who knows how to exploit the blue and indigo tones of the sky together with the play of light created by the flames. The shots will be unique, enveloped in a wild and romantic atmosphere.

In case of rain:

the charm of an indoor elopement with a backlit white background

When the weather does not cooperate, it is important to have a plan B that turns the unexpected into an opportunity to create an equally magical and memorable atmosphere. A white backlit indoor backdrop is the ideal choice for an elegant, intimate and evocative elopement.

Why choose a backlit white background
White is the colour of purity and elegance, perfect for a wedding. When backlit, the backdrop creates a luminous and enveloping effect, transforming any indoor space into a refined and cosy ambience. The soft lighting behind the backdrop gives depth and a soft glow, enhancing the details of the ceremony and creating an almost ethereal atmosphere.

One of the great advantages of a backlit backdrop is the possibility of holding your ceremony at any time, without being constrained by natural light or weather conditions. Thanks to backlighting, the backdrop provides even and impressive illumination, creating a perfect atmosphere at any time of day.

The Light Designer: a still little-known figure but essential for an unforgettable wedding

When people think about the elements that make a wedding unique, they often focus on flowers, arrangements and dresses. However, there is a professional figure who, although still little known, can completely transform the atmosphere of an event: the light designer.

The light designer is an expert in the art of shaping light to create exciting and evocative environments. He does not just place lamps or spotlights, but carefully studies every detail of the location, the mood of the bride and groom, and the theme of the event to design customised and dramatic lighting.

Why is it crucial?

Light plays a key role in defining the atmosphere of a wedding. Good lighting design can:

Enhance the location: whether it is a castle, a villa or an outdoor garden, the right light can enhance the architecture and details.
Create emotion: colours, intensity and lighting dynamics can convey feelings and make every moment, from the ceremony to the first dance, even more special.
Ensuring perfect shots: well-designed lighting facilitates the photographer's work, ensuring high-quality images without unwanted shadows.

The importance of lighting in editorial portrait photography

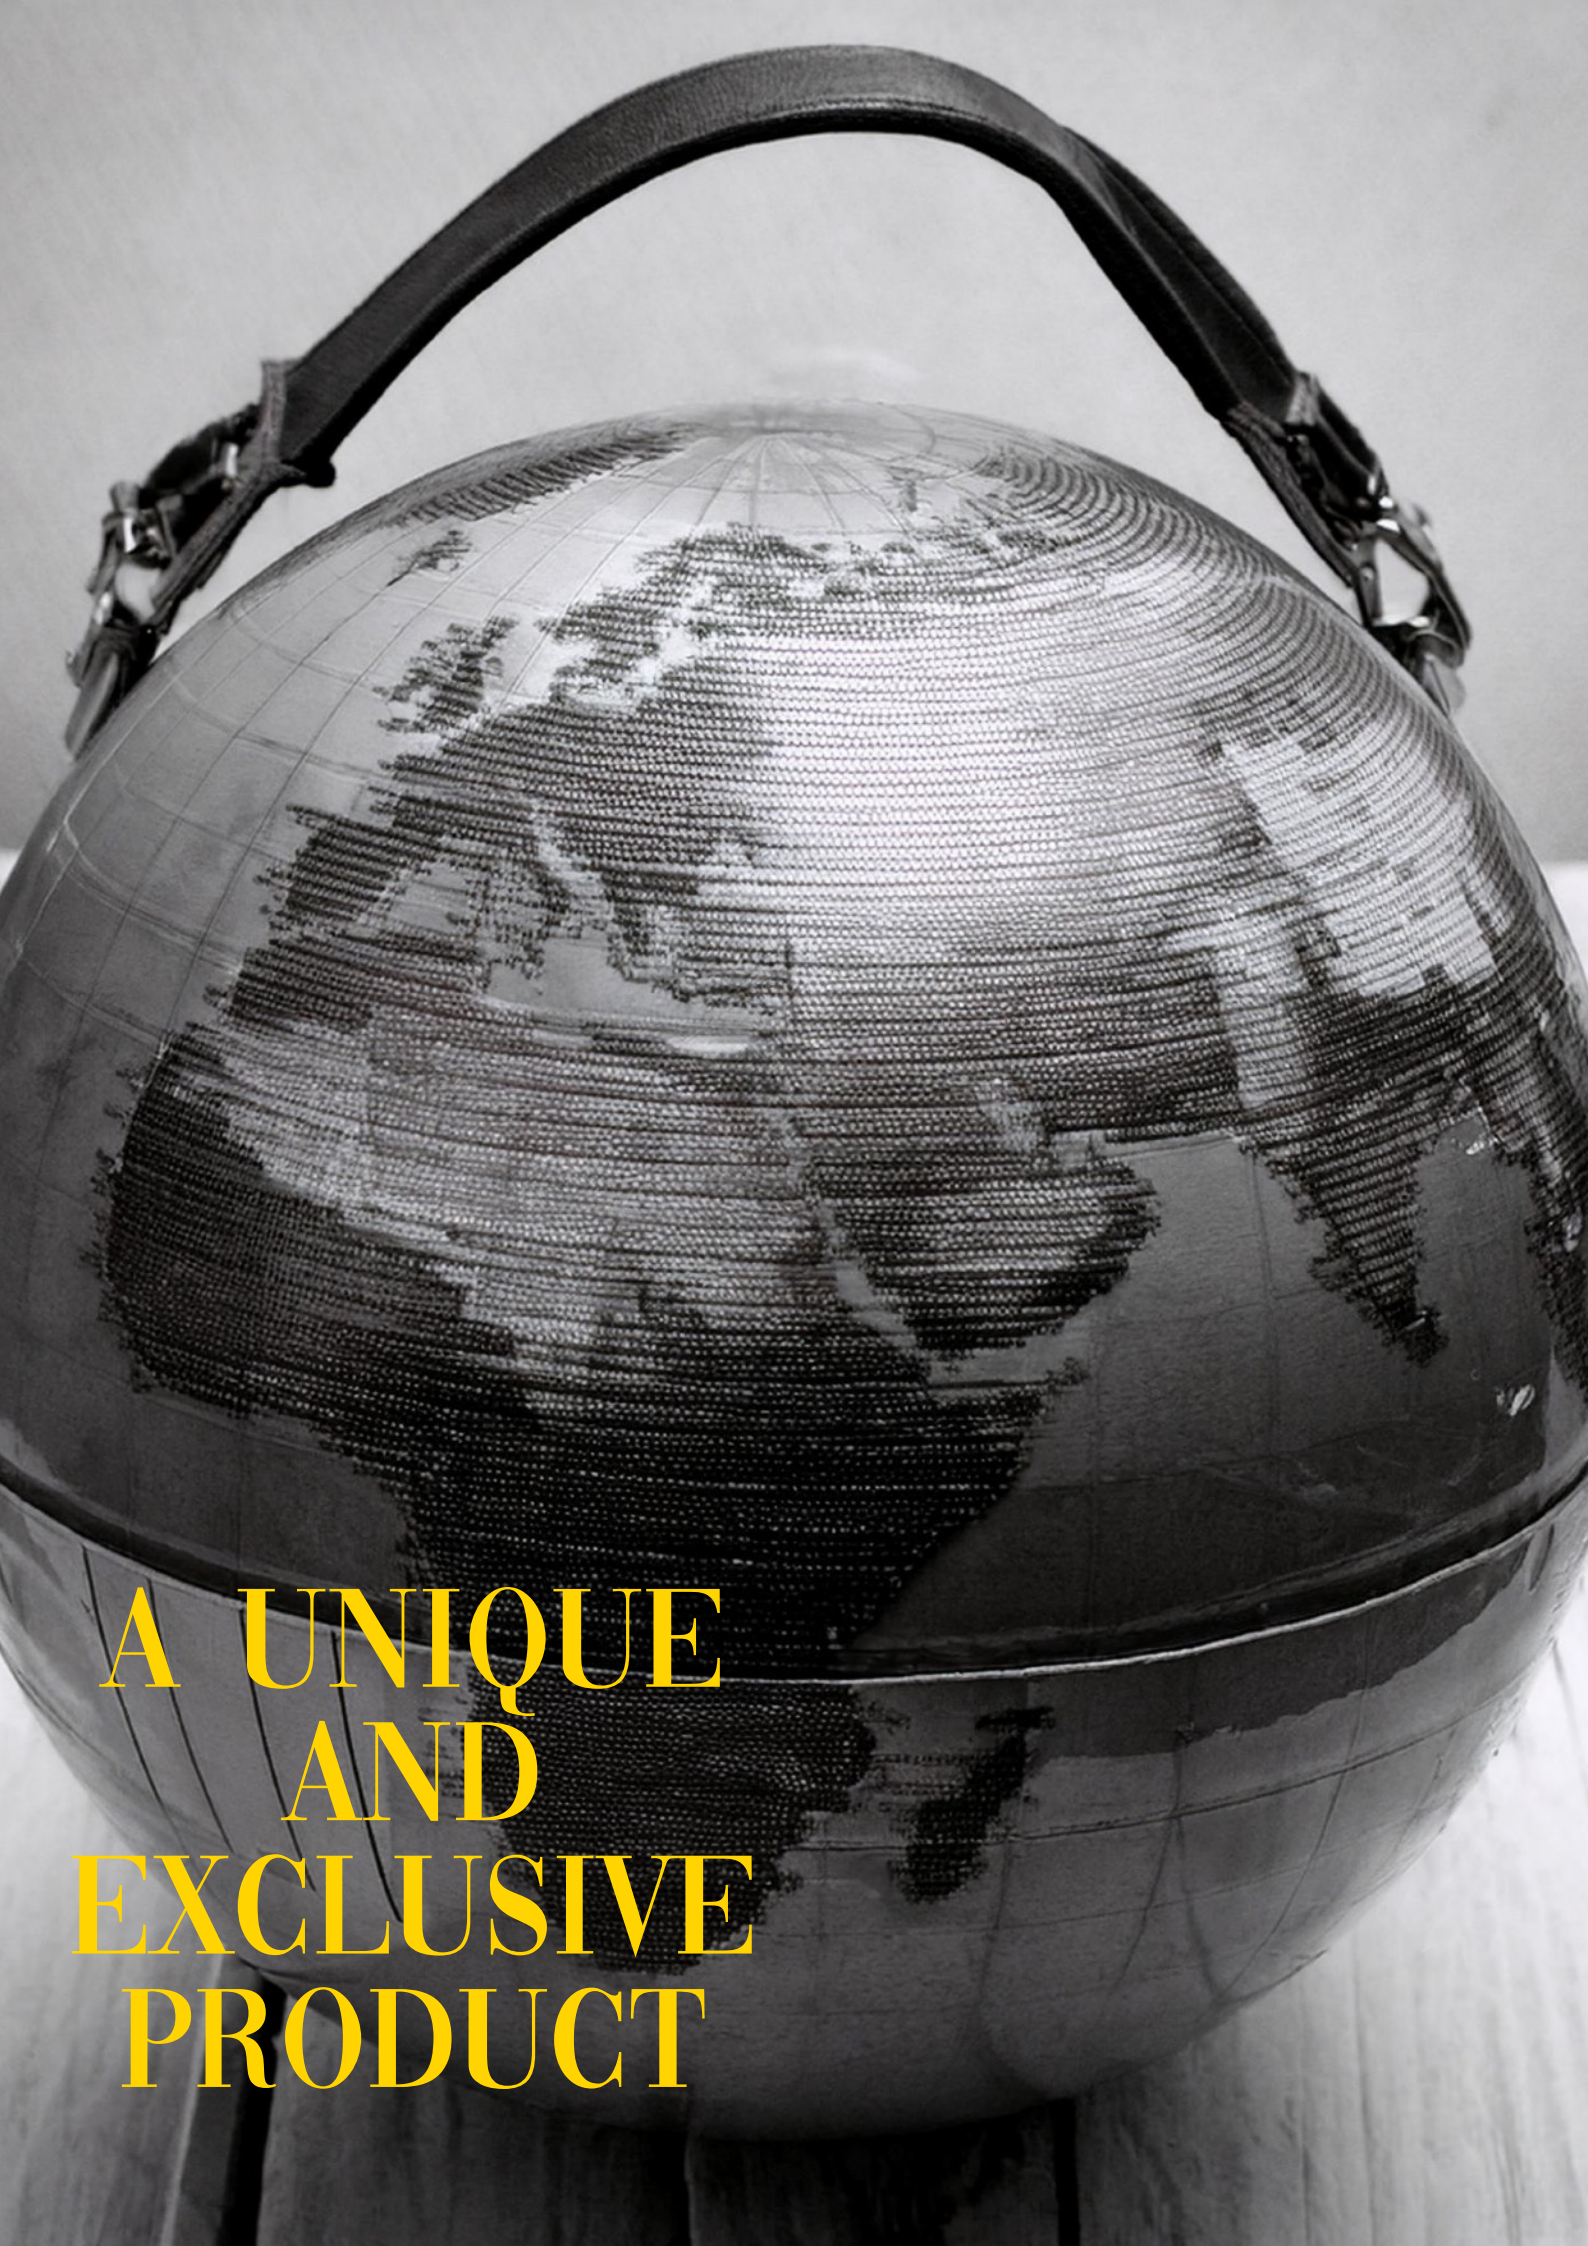

In editorial portrait photography, lighting is not just a technical element, but the real focus of the visual narrative. It is through light that atmosphere is built, the unique characteristics of the subject are highlighted and a precise message is communicated. Every detail, from the positioning of the light sources to the choice of intensity and colour temperature, contributes to transforming a simple portrait into a work of art that captures the viewer.

durability. By choosing a globe-shaped bag, you are investing in an accessory that combines functionality and art.

For couples planning their wedding, it is important to start with a clear vision of what they want. The first thing to do is to choose the location and the caterer, as they set the tone for the entire event. Once the venue is set, book the photographer and videographer right away to capture the most important moments.

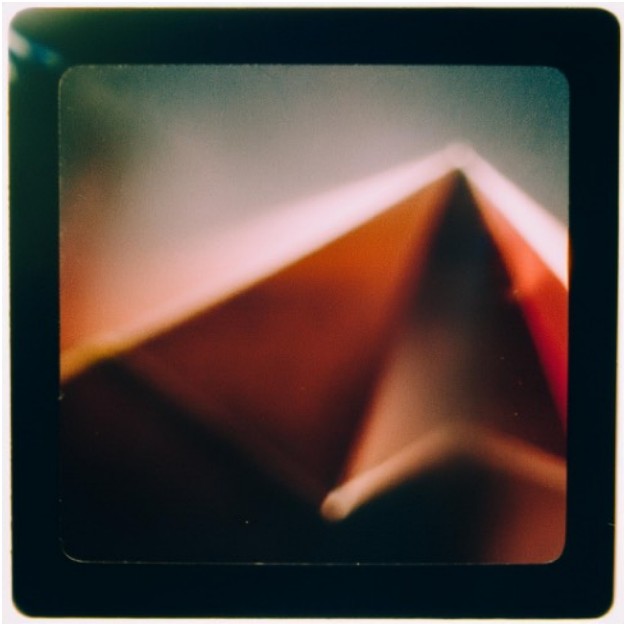

Immediately afterwards, focus on the dress and accessories: the wedding dress takes time to alter, so it is best to start well in advance. If the budget allows, a wedding planner can be an excellent ally to manage all the other details, such as flower suppliers, music and make-up artist.

Finally, don't forget transport, the wedding cake and wedding favours, which will help make the day truly special. Starting with these main aspects will help create a solid base on which to build the rest of the wedding.

Content Creator

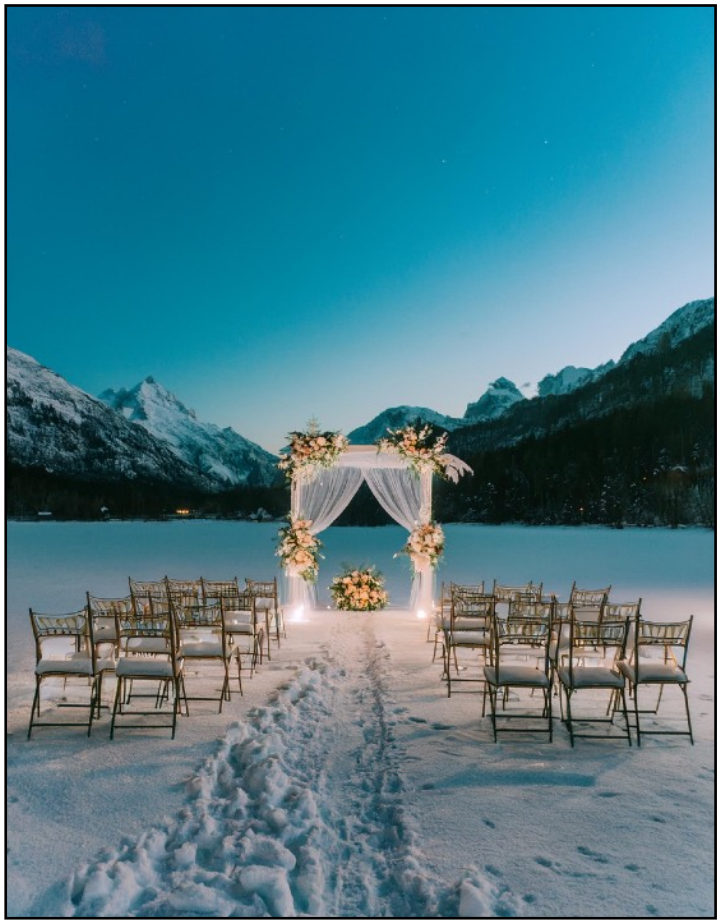

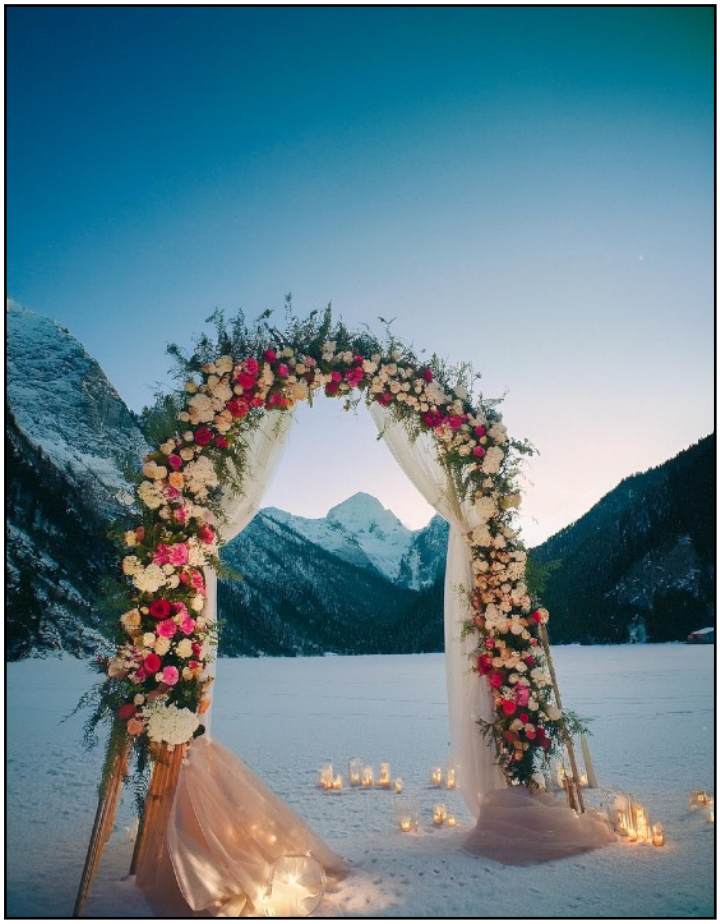

The content creator is essential for enhancing events and spaces, transforming them into memorable experiences. Thanks to his ability to tell stories through images, videos and text, he creates content that attracts and engages audiences, enhancing visibility and strengthening the brand. Such a professional not only communicates the uniqueness of your project, but also optimises your online presence, making it more effective and relevant. Relying on a content creator means investing in narratives that inspire, excite and leave a lasting impression.

The Bridal Mood's suppliers have the opportunity to create unique videos that evoke the timeless appeal of Super 8 film. A format that captures authentic emotions, making every moment extraordinarily special and memorable.

Getting married at the blue hour of winter, in the snow-capped mountains, is an experience of pure magic. This enchanted moment, just after sunset, transforms the landscape into a surreal painting, where the sky is tinged with deep blue hues, shaded by violet and silver accents. The gentle, enveloping natural light reflects off the expanses of snow, creating a bright, dreamy atmosphere, perfect for celebrating love.

The snow-capped mountains, majestic and silent, become witnesses to a unique moment, amplifying the feeling of intimacy and connection with nature. Every breath is fresh and pure, every sound muffled, as if the world stopped to pay homage to your 'yes'.

The contrast between the cold outside and the warmth of affection creates an unforgettable atmosphere. The warm lights of candles or lanterns are reflected in the snow, while a crackling fireplace and details such as soft blankets or winter decorations - pine cones, fir branches and red berries - complete the setting.

Photographically, the blue hour is a dream: the vibrant colours of the sky and the whiteness of the snow make each image extraordinary, capturing not only the aesthetic beauty but also the romantic essence of the moment. Getting married at the blue hour in winter is more than a stylistic choice: it is a journey into an enchanted world, where love blends with nature in a perfect balance.

WHY CHOOSE THE BLUE HOUR FOR YOUR WEDDING?

Many couples choose sunset to celebrate their wedding, drawn by its warm, golden light that creates a cozy and romantic atmosphere. But there's a moment that, while less popular, surpasses sunset in beauty and uniqueness: the blue hour.

This fleeting period, occurring right after sunset and before twilight, paints the sky in deep blue hues, accented with touches of violet and pearl gray. The light during the blue hour is soft, ethereal, and incredibly romantic, turning the landscape into a dreamlike setting. It's the perfect time to capture breathtaking photos and create an intimate, unforgettable ambiance.

The Blue Hour: An Exclusive Choice

Unlike sunset, often associated with traditional weddings, the blue hour is ideal for more original and refined celebrations. Its charm lies in its fleeting nature: it lasts only a few moments, making every second unique and unrepeatable. Choosing it means embracing an extraordinary moment, where everything – from the sky to the light, from colors to emotions – contributes to a magical experience.

Timing is Key

To fully enjoy the blue hour, timing is crucial. Planning the ceremony or photo session during this time requires precise coordination, but the result will be a wedding that leaves everyone in awe. With the right organization and an experienced photographer, the blue hour can become the perfect backdrop for a memorable "I do."

More Romantic than Sunset

The blue hour is not just beautiful; it's deeply romantic. Its cool, enveloping tones create an intimate atmosphere, perfect for those who dream of a fairytale wedding. It's a choice that speaks of sophistication, taste, and attention to detail, ideal for couples looking for something truly special.

Choosing the blue hour means embracing uniqueness and celebrating love during a moment of pure poetry. Don't follow the crowd – make your wedding an unparalleled event, illuminated by the magic of the blue sky.
